

Washington Health Foundation Announces 2010 Healthiest State Grant Awards

The Washington Health Foundation's 2010 Healthiest State Grants program invests in collaborative rural projects that engage people and their communities in adopting healthy habits, taking charge of their health and supporting action to Make Washington the Healthiest State in the Nation.

GRANT PARTNER	COUNTY	PROJECT FOCUS	HEALTHIEST STATE MEASURE	AMOUNT
Bridgeport School District	Douglas	Student, family and staff wellness. Immunization rates.	Disparities, Disease Prevention, Health Homes and Wellness	$25,000
Columbia County Health Systems	Columbia	Action to Change competition: Activity, screening & education.	Physical Activity	$9,500
KDNA/NW Community Education Center	Yakima	Salud en Sus Manos (Health is in Your Hands) Weekly Spanish language health programs on radio.	Disparities, Disease Prevention	$15,000
Odessa Healthcare Foundation	Lincoln	Health Education Program Falls prevention, wellness planning, safe babysitting.	Disease Prevention, Health Home	$5,000
Omak School District	Okanogan	Fit for Life Community Coalition healthy habits & individual wellness planning.	Disparities, Physical Activity, Disease Prevention, Health Homes	$15,000
Quileute Tribal School	Clallam	Health Education Advisory Team. Challenges to engage staff and tribal members in healthy habits.	Physical Activity, Nutrition	$15,000
Songwriting Works	Jefferson	Songwriting Works for Health Living brings together musicians and isolated elders to write and sing songs.	Emotional Well-Being	$15,000
Whitson Elementary School	Klickitat	Healthy Habits, Active Minds. Create a school environment that promotes health.	Physical Activity, Nutrition	$15,000

Organization Type	East/West
4 Schools (one Tribe)	3 East / 1 West
2 Hospitals	2 East
2 Non-Profits	1 East / 1 West